Jennifer lost her sight as a 15 year old, but she found in that blindness wonderful opportunities to share the Truth of God's unconditional love for us. Jennifer says, "I have now lived longer in physical darkness than I ever did in the physical light. Blindness is hard, but it's been a place where God has shown Himself to be so deeply kind, strong and faithful. I do what I do because "God has made it well with my soul," and I want others to experience that same kind of peace." She is the author of many books and Bible studies and has recorded several CD's.
